

The elephant is a big thing, but a bigger thing is the 1½ pound package of IVORINE. You can buy it of your grocer for 12 cents. Just think, a pound and a half costs no more than a pound package of any other, and its the purest and best, too, of all washing powders. Isn't it a big thing? Buy a package and see. Makes washing easy. Makes work light. Saves your clothes and makes them white. Makes cheerful women and happy homes. It is made by THE J. B. WILLIAMS CO., Glastonbury, Conn., whose shaving soaps have been so famous for 50 years. It ought to be pure and good, hadn't it? Ask your husband, for of course he has used the famous

Little maid pretty maid
 Will you be mine?
 You shall wash dishes
 And feed the swine!
 Sit on a cushion
 And sew up a seam!
 Live upon strawberries,
 sugar, and cream!

Little Tom Tucker
 Sang for his supper:
 What should he sing for
 But white bread & butter.
 How can he cut it
 Without any knife?
 How can he marry
 Without any wife?

FORGET · ME · NOT.

[STATE FLOWER.]

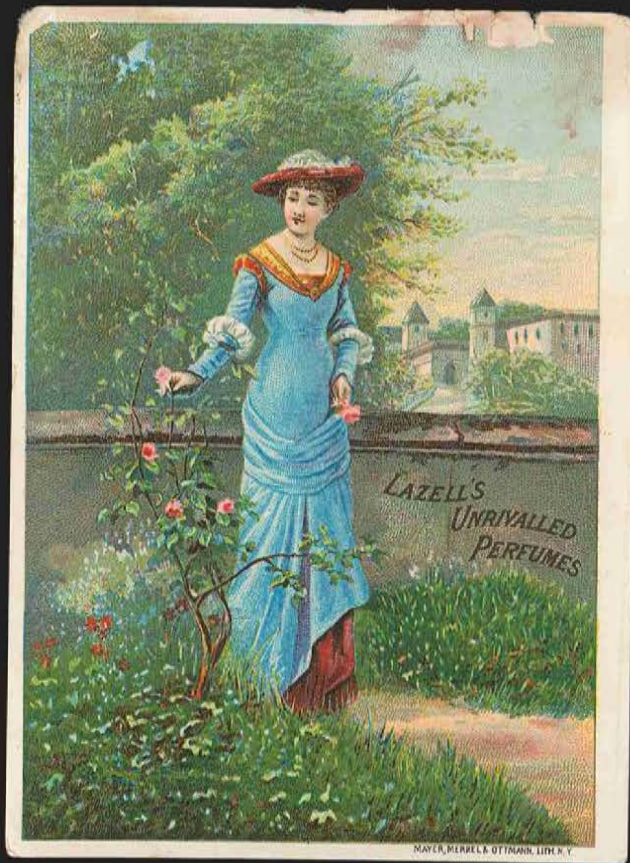

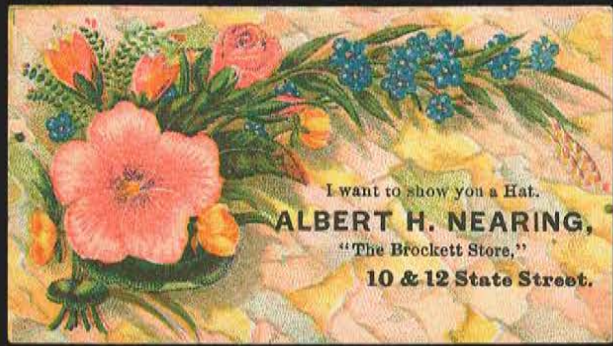

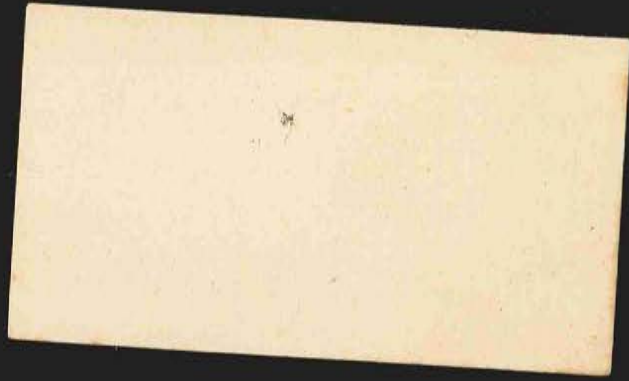

Young Men and Maidens, we are the flowers of our nation; to us she cries, "Forget me not" in this crusade of

The Home Against the Saloon.

"Forget me not" comes from the fruits and grains made into alcoholic drinks. "Forget me not," says Science. "I tell you there is no food or medicine in alcohol." "Forget me not," wails the drunkard; "I cannot enter heaven." "Forget me not," moan the little children of drunken parents, holding out their hands. "Forget me not in the days of thy youth," says our Lord.

Let our answers be,
We will not Forget Thy Law.
