UNITED STATES OF AMERICA WAR-SAVINGS CERTIFICATE

CERTIFICATE

This certifies that, subject to the terms and conditions printed hereon, the owner named on the back hereof will be entitled to receive on January 1, 1923, in respect of each United States War-Savings Certificate Stamp of the Series of 1918 then affixed hereto, the amount indicated thereon as then payable, or, at his option, will be entitled to receive at any earlier date, in respect of each such Stamp then affixed hereto, the lesser amount indicated in the Table printed hereon.

January 2, 1918

W. G. McAdoo
Secretary of the Treasury

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. This certificate is not a valid obligation unless a United States War-Savings Certificate Stamp of the Series of 1918 is affixed hereto.
2. This certificate is of no value except to the owner named hereon, and is not transferable.
3. Not more than twenty United States War-Savings Certificate Stamps, and only such Stamps of the Series of 1918, may be affixed hereto.
4. This certificate may be registered at any post office of the first, second, or third class, subject to such regulations as the Postmaster General may prescribe. Unless registered, the United States will not be liable if payment be made to a person not the rightful owner.
5. This certificate, if not registered, is payable at any money-order post office, and on January 1, 1923, at the Treasury Department in Washington, but if registered, is payable only at the post office where registered. No post-office, however, is required to make payment, either on January 1, 1923, or on any other date, until ten days after receiving written demand therefor.
6. The law provides that no one person shall at any one time hold War-Savings Certificates to an aggregate amount exceeding One Thousand Dollars.

7. Upon payment hereof, this certificate must be surrendered and the receipt printed hereon must be signed by the owner in the presence of the official to whom surrendered. In case of death or disability a special receipt must be signed in form prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury. Upon furnishing evidence of loss of a registered certificate satisfactory to the Secretary of the Treasury, the owner thereof shall be entitled to receive payment of the amount for which it shall have been registered.
